

PHOTOS: TIMPESTRIDGE

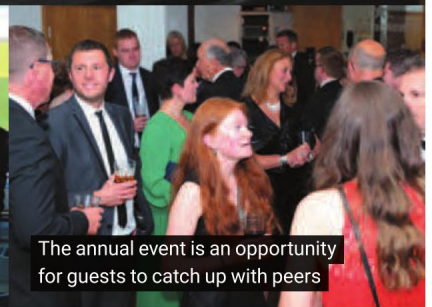

Transportation Project of the Year was The Forder Valley Link Road, submitted by Balfour Beatty and Plymouth City Council, in collaboration with WSP and AECOM

The Waterman Aspen team - headline sponsors of CIHT (SW) 2023

Mike O'Dowd-Jones, David Watkins (Regional chair CIHT SW), Nichola Clarke (CEO Balloons) and Nik Bowyer

The annual event is an opportunity for guests to catch up with peers

Graham Smith, Stephen Webb, David Clegg and Steve Collard

Graeme Thompson, Bev Norman, Alan Swan, Sarah Ellwood, Sam Harper, Sophie Jones, Sarah Ledger, Jon Berry and Alex Russell

Robin Fox wows guests with his close-up magic

On the road to success

The Chartered Institution of Highways & Transportation (CIHT) (SW) annual awards were hosted by Sandy Park and sponsored by Waterman Aspen. The ceremony celebrated innovative and pioneering transportation award-winning projects. CIHT SW Region chair, David Watkins welcomed guests and CIHT (UK) president 2023 Neil Johnstone gave an overview of the transportation industry. Exeter-based Balloons charity was the CIHT (SW) chosen worthy cause with £2,450 raised from generous donations by local businesses, plus an auction. The Exeter charity supports bereaved children and young people to have somewhere to turn when someone significant in their lives dies. Balloons CEO, Nicola Clarke, gave a heartfelt speech and was overwhelmed by the generosity of the guests who bought raffle tickets and bid for auction prizes which will make a real difference to the charity. ● ciht.org.uk